PRESS RELEASE

November 14, 2022

Town of Hudson –

On Sunday, November 13, 2022, the St. Croix County Emergency Communication Center received a call at approximately 8:37 p.m. with a report of an attempted carjacking, with a firearm used, in the area of CTH N and USH 12, in Hudson Township.

Deputies arrived on scene and located the victims of the attempted carjacking. The victims reported they were driving on CTH N in Hudson Township when a vehicle that had been parked on the side of the road pulled out in front of them, forcing them to stop. A male subject exited the vehicle and pointed a firearm at the victims' car. The victim drove around the suspect vehicle and sped away. As the victims were fleeing the area, the suspect fired at them, striking their vehicle. The suspect vehicle followed the victims vehicle a short distance before turning onto I-94 and traveling west. The suspect vehicle was seen by officers of the Hudson Police Department, however, attempts to catch up to the suspect vehicle were unsuccessful as it entered Minnesota.

The suspect was described as a black male, approximately 5'10"-6'00", wearing all black clothing and a partial face covering. The suspect vehicle was described as a black Lincoln sedan.

There were no injuries reported.

If anyone has any information regarding this incident, or others like it, please contact the St. Croix County Sheriff's Office. This incident remains under investigation by the St. Croix County Sheriff's Office.
